BINGO!

Narellan Creek

Hi there local explorer!

Use this handy bingo card to record what you can see, hear, feel and smell while you are out and about in Harrington Park.

Print this sheet and fill in the corner triangles to mark your progress! Can you do them all?

Download the Narellan Creek Waterway Walk guide from Council's website for more information, but remember you can play Waterway Walk Bingo near any local waterway.

Remember:

- Wear sensible shoes;
- Be sun safe;
- Bring a drink bottle;
- Stay on the path;
- Look out for traffic; and
- Practice social distancing.

What can you see living in the creek?
Is it a fish, plant, turtle, eel, bird, frog or something else?

Spot a waterbird.

Find moss or lichen.

Run your hands along some plants.
What do they feel like?

Careful! Some plants can be quite spiky.

Put litter in the bin.

If it's litter that you find, be safe and check with an adult first. If you can, wear gloves and make sure to use hand sanitiser afterwards.

Hear a native bird call.

Take a deep breath in. What can you smell?

Look up at the sky.
Does it look like it's going to rain?

Can you hear any frogs, crickets, cicadas, bees or flies?

What kind of plants can you see in the wetland? Are they floating, underneath the water or growing on the banks?

Look at some leaf litter.
Can you see bugs crawling and living amongst it?

Find a rock.
Does it have things living on or around it?

Remember, don't turn rocks over!

Find someone on a bicycle.

Listen to the wind.
What is it able to move?

Hug a tree.
Can you wrap your arms around it?
How old do you think it is?

Spot a nest or tree hollow.

What can you see on the road or path?
Would it wash into the creek or lake during a storm?

Careful not to step out onto the road!

Find a playground.

Find some rough bark.

Crush and smell a Eucalyptus leaf.

Take a sip of your water.

Find a native bird.
What is it?

Discover a spider web.

Spot a lizard.

Imagine you're a turtle. Where would you hide and what would you eat?
