

Tetratheca thymifolia

Botanic name:
Tetratheca thymifolia

Common name:
Black-eyed Susan

Family:
Elaeocarpaceae

Typical height:
40-60cm

Typical width:
40-60cm

Typical growth rate:
Moderate

Typical habit:
Heathland or eucalyptus woodland on sandy soils

Foliage:
Evergreen leaves, deep pink-magenta four-petalled flowers

Flowers:
Flowering most of the year. Produce fruit as capsules which open longitudinally

Site requirements:
Well drained position in the garden, preferably with some shelter from the direct summer sun and with assured moisture.

