NSW legislation

Local Government Act 1993 No 30

Current version for 1 September 2024 to date (accessed 3 September 2024 at 11:09)

Chapter 10 > Part 5 > Section 291A

291A Countback to be held instead of by-election in certain circumstances

- (1) This section applies to a casual vacancy in the office of a councillor if—
 - (a) the casual vacancy occurs within 18 months after the date of the last ordinary election of the councillors for the area, and
 - (b) the council has at its first meeting following that ordinary election of councillors, by resolution, declared that any such casual vacancy is to be filled by a countback of votes cast at the last election for that office.
- (2) This section does not apply to a casual vacancy in the office of a councillor if the councillor who vacated office was elected—
 - (a) in an election using the optional preferential voting system (including the election of a mayor elected by the electors of an area), or

Note—

See section 285 (Voting system for election of councillors).

 - (b) in an election without a poll being required to be held.

Note—

See section 311 (Uncontested elections).
- (3) A casual vacancy to which this section applies is to be filled by a countback election conducted in accordance with the regulations.
- (4) A countback election to fill a casual vacancy to which this section applies must be conducted—
 - (a) if the election at which the person whose departure created the casual vacancy was elected was administered by the Electoral Commissioner—by a returning officer appointed by the Electoral Commissioner, or
 - (b) if the election at which the person whose departure created the casual vacancy was elected was administered by a returning officer appointed by an electoral services provider engaged by the council—by a returning officer appointed by the electoral services provider.
 - (c) (Repealed)
- (5) If a countback election fails or the returning officer is otherwise unable to fill the casual vacancy by a countback election—
 - (a) the returning officer must notify the general manager of the council concerned, and
 - (b) a by-election in accordance with this Part must be held to fill the casual vacancy.
- (5A) If an electoral services provider engaged by the council is unable to appoint a returning officer for the purposes of subsection (4)(b), a by-election in accordance with this Part must be held to fill the casual vacancy.

- (6) This section does not apply to a casual vacancy in the office of a councillor if the vacancy occurs before the day prescribed for the purposes of this section by the regulations.
