If the site is owned by multiple persons, organisations or companies, each must provide owner's consent.

If a company owns the site, the owner's consent must be provided from either two directors or a director and a company secretary of the company. If the company is a proprietary company that has a sole director, that sole director must provide owner's consent.

If a Power of Attorney has been granted authorising a person to sign on the owner's behalf, a certified copy of the Power of Attorney must be provided.

If the site is strata titled and a development involves any common property on the site, owner's consent from the Strata Body Corporate must be provided in addition to the site owner's consent.

If the property has only recently been purchased, Council's records may still identify the previous site owner. In this circumstance a letter from your conveyancer or solicitor stating that you are now the owner of the site must be provided.

By signing this statement you are consenting to the surrender of the development consent described in this notice.

Part 7 - Declaration

- I give notice of the surrender of a development consent as described in this notice.
- I understand that this notice may be disclosed under the provisions of the Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009.
